

We feel the Indiana Telephone Privacy Protection Law has made a noticable difference in the number of unwanted calls we receive and do not support any federal action that would lessen the effectiveness of Indiana's current law.